HIDDEN LEGACY: THE TRUE IDENTITY AND DESTINY OF “BLACKS” IN AMERICA

AN OVERVIEW

And YAHUWAH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships... and there you shall be sold to your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you back - Deut. 28:68.

To the Kingdom Commonwealth of Yisrael in Christ, the twelve tribes of Yisrael scattered abroad, the United States of America, and the world: In the name of YAHUWAH our Father and Yahushua The Messiah our Redeemer, Greetings.

It has often been said that the most segregated hour in American life is eleven a.m. on Sunday morning. This saying, however ironic, is clearly a manifest truth. Sadly, the supposed Judeo-Christian establishment, while claiming to hold the solution to the evils of racism, has in reality been its leading advocate. Following the lead of European 'Judaism' and its “curse of Ham” doctrine, it has supplied the underlying rationale for "white supremacy" - the vile heresy that lies at the core of its profound theological and racial confusion. In its wake, it has left both the body of Christ and the world at large in an unprecedented state of covetousness, deception, and division.

The Holy Scriptures from Genesis to The Revelation were written within a Hebraic framework; but have been grossly mishandled and misinterpreted through the cultural bias of the western world. This Greco-Roman usurping of Divine authority has fostered a confusion that beggars description...

For some five centuries now - from the onset of the European Renaissance, or “New Enlightenment” - the world has been deliberately misled into believing that the patriarchs of the Bible, including the ancient Yisraelites, are Anglo-Saxons/Caucasians. In 1496, a mere four years after the Roman Catholic expulsion of Hebrew Yisraelites, “Moors” and Muslims from Spain, Italian artist Michelangelo was commissioned by the Vatican to create portraits and statues of Biblical figures, known for centuries to be Ibriy Yisraelim (Hebrew Yisraelites) in their own European image and likeness. And yet to this day, Greco-Romanized “Church-ianity” continues to insist that “the ‘color line’ has been washed away by the blood of Jesus,” and that national identity somehow no longer applies... so the story goes.

Surely the burdensome yoke of “white supremacy” is a damnable lie that must be exposed and destroyed! But how? The answer is simple - by revealing the true national identity and destiny of the primary target of western racism: the so-called 'African-American.' For example, due to the involuntary nature of our original presence as slaves in America, of the scores of ethnic groups represented in the U.S., so-called “African Americans” are the only community referred to with a continental rather than a national identity. Selah.

All other national groups, both in America and around the world, are knitted together and defined within the history and heritage, of a common land, language, and lifestyle - Ethiopian Americans, Greek Americans, Irish Americans, etc. How then can the so-called African American's place in America finally be understood, and his place in this world respected, while his national identity remains a mystery?

Ironically, the solution to this dilemma is key not only to ending the scourge of “white supremacy”, but to bringing racial and doctrinal unity to the Body of Messiah-Christ as well! It is written, “Behold, the days come says YAHUWAH, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Yisrael and with the house of Yahudah.” (Jer. 31:31). This is without a doubt, a clear reference to the New Testament, ratified by the blood of Y'shua (Heb. 8:8). If the Body of Christ at large is to receive its manifold blessings, including the ever-elusive racial and doctrinal unity of the faith, she must do so according to divine law, and within the specific terms of this covenant.

And as with any contract, the New Covenant, being a binding legal agreement, was entered into by two principal parties. The identity of the first party is universally agreed upon - YAHUWAH Himself. But when it comes to the identity of the other party involved, much controversy still remains. The Commonwealth of Yisrael must finally come to terms with the fact that until this particular matter is fully resolved, any efforts toward seeing the precious promises of the Covenant truly fulfilled are utterly in vain!

So then, the first order of business, despite its complexities, is quite simple: we must come to a full understanding of the contract. We must accurately identify the principal parties involved - YAHUWAH and Y'shua/Yisrael and Yahudah - and then determine exactly what kind of contract it is; understanding clearly both the rights and responsibilities required of its principal parties by divine law.

ABRAM OF UR

Despite the raging controversy over the true identity of the physical descendants of Jacob, there is no such dispute when it comes to identifying the original father of the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites - Abraham. In order to determine the racial and ethnic characteristics of Yisrael and Yahudah - and thereby accurately identify the covenant's second principal party - we must then of course, begin at the beginning. We must establish the true “race” and ethnicity of Abraham. For purposes of this overview, our doing so will be brief, and directly to the point.

According to Genesis 11, Abraham is originally from a region called Ur of the Chaldees. This area was located in what is modern day Iraq. From every objective indicator - scriptural, archaeological, anthropological, geographical, and historical - that region of the world was at that time, and to a great extent even today, populated by a dark-skinned, woolly haired people. For example, the ancient artistic renderings of the Hebrew slaves by the Chaldean, the indigenous peoples of the region, clearly and consistently depict an Afro-Asiatic physical appearance.

Furthermore, common knowledge says it is simply a physiological impossibility for a “white-skinned” people to long withstand the routine one hundred degrees plus temperatures that were the norm in the land of Ur. And thus, the indigenous peoples obviously had to have been “Afro-Asiatic,” so to speak. Even today, that area of the world is hardly peopled by Anglo-Saxons/Caucasians. And so, the bizarre assumption that Abram of Ur was “white-skinned” - and that, without any evidence whatsoever - is patently absurd on its face. Abraham is clearly and obviously a dark-skinned man, just as were the rest of the indigenous peoples of the region.

THE SEVENTY SOULS

The Torah tells us that Abraham's direct descendants, the ancient Yisraelites, while sojourning in Egypt, multiplied from seventy souls to in excess of 650,000 men, not including women and children, at the time of the exodus under Moses. The ancient Egyptians, unlike their Hebrew counterparts, were descended from Ham, the son of Noah - universally recognized as the father of the so-called African nations. Therefore, the ancient Egyptians were also a dark-skinned people.

How could the children of Yisrael grow from a handful into a multitude of millions in Egypt in so short a time, without mass intermarriage with the Egyptians and other Hamitic peoples? As it is written, the children of Yisrael came out of Egypt under Moses “a mixed multitude.” This simple fact alone makes it literally impossible for the ancient Yisraelites to have been so-called “whites.”

The great emancipator Moses himself was raised as Pharaoh's grandson at a time when Pharaoh sought to destroy all Hebrew male babies. For Pharaoh to have issued such an edict with any credibility, the Hebrew infant Moses had to have passed as his grandson. Could Moses have possibly been a “white Hebrew” baby in the royal court of a ‘black’ Hamitic king and go undetected? Obviously not.

The scripture even tells us that the adult Moses was initially mistaken by the daughters of Jethro to be an Egyptian. Moses' physical characteristics are thus recorded in scripture as being indistinguishable from the Egyptian descendants of Ham - the universally acknowledged progenitor of the so-called black African nations. Clearly, and beyond a shadow of a doubt, the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites, just like the ancient Egyptians, were basically a dark-skinned, woolly haired people.

GENESIS 15:13

The next step in determining the true identity of 'Yisrael and Yahudah' - the disputed principal party in YAHUWAH's 'New Covenant' - is to discover how the scriptures characterize their divine purpose and ultimate destiny. What was to be the fate of the chosen people in the last days?

Again, we must look to the Genesis of Yisrael - the original vision and design for the holy nation, as well as the promises of divine blessings and dominion given to our father Abraham. It is no mere "coincidence" that on the same day that YAHUWAH made His covenant with Abram, giving his seed the land from the Nile (Egypt and Ethiopia) to the Euphrates (the so-called Middle East.) He also revealed to him what manner of affliction his posterity would endure before the inheritance would be theirs - just as the ultimate seed of Abraham, Christ Himself, would endure the cross before receiving the keys to the Kingdom.

YAHUWAH said to Abram, "Know of a surety that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them, and they shall afflict them four hundred years..." (Gen.15:13). Western scholars and theologians, to a man, have insisted that this revelation was fulfilled with the Egyptian bondage, and ended with the Exodus under Moses. This is based, for the most part, on a misreading of Exodus 12:40, which reads "Now the sojourning of the children of Yisrael, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years."

But notice what this verse does not say. He does not say the bondage of the children of Yisrael lasted four hundred years, but rather their sojourning. This verse is simply referring to the full extent of the sojourning of Yisrael from Abraham to the Exodus. The apostle Paul bears this out - telling us that the law of Moses came 430 years after the covenant with Abraham and did not make the original promise (which was by faith, and before the law) of no effect (Gal. 3:16-17). This means that a mere 30 years after the covenant was made with Abraham, the four-hundred-year bondage would have begun - the children of Yisrael would have been enslaved by the Egyptians.

But thirty years after that covenant was made, Jacob himself, who was to become the patriarch of the twelve tribes of Yisrael, was not yet born - much less the generations of Yisraelites who would proceed from his loins and suffer Egyptian bondage. As a matter of fact, Moses' grandfather Kohath was one of the original seventy souls that entered into Egypt during the time of favor under Joseph. So, it becomes crystal clear to any honest observer; to any sincere seeker of truth, that the prophecy of Genesis 15:13 was in no way fulfilled by the Egyptian enslavement of the ancient Hebrew Yisraelites.

Clearly, this word from YAHUWAH was intended to reveal to Abraham - and to us - what would befall the chosen nation in the last days. And at a point subsequent to the bondage in Egypt. Therefore, to accurately identify the core of the physical seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the modern world, one must simply determine what nation of people has actually endured the affliction foretold in Genesis 15:13.

THE TRANS-ATLANTIC SLAVE TRADE

In all of recorded history, only one nation of people has ever been continuously afflicted in the land of its oppressors for anything even remotely approaching a four-hundred-year period: the so-called African slaves and their descendants, under the United States of America.

In the book of Deuteronomy, Moses prophesied concerning the children of Yisrael, saying “And YAHUWAH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships... and there you shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall redeem you” (Deut. 28:68). This verse of scripture reveals that the Yisraelites would endure yet another, more insidious form of bondage - one in which there was no possibility of redemption after a set period of time, as was the case with the form of slavery practiced among the civilized world of that day. It further reveals that Yisrael would be enslaved with ships; clearly indicating that this new “Egypt” would be a land reachable only by sea.

The whole 28th chapter of Deuteronomy unmistakably outlines a form of slavery theretofore unknown; one in which the Yisraelites would not only lose their freedom, but their very identity - their history, culture, and religion; yea, their very humanity. This chilling prophecy was without question fulfilled by the most horrific method of national disintegration ever devised; through the most cruel and barbaric form of slavery in the annals of recorded human history - the Trans-Atlantic slave trade. Let it also be known that the bulk of those who were brought to the Western hemisphere in ships were the descendants of the 'Judean' diaspora into Egypt and Ethiopia brought on by the Roman destruction of Yahudah and Jerusalem in 70 CE - recorded for posterity by the noted ancient historian Josephus.

(At that point in time, for the most part, it was the southern Kingdom of Yahudah that dwelt in the land of our fathers - the ten northern tribes that constituted the Kingdom of Yisrael having long since been dispersed under the Assyrian captivity in 722 BC.)

These displaced Yahudim were most often despised and persecuted among the so-called African nations as well. As a result, most were driven westward, until finally arriving on the west coast of Africa, where they were eventually captured and sold... And thus, the children of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade are primarily the actual descendants of the southern Kingdom, consisting of the tribes of Yahudah, Benyamin, and Lewi - the rulers by divine birthright over the nation of Yisrael as a whole, and those who must therefore bear the burden of bringing order and unity to the entire Commonwealth.

THE STOLEN LEGACY

In our final step in determining the rightful and legal executors of the Divine Covenants, it is needful to point out that the chastisement of Yisrael prophesied in Deuteronomy is a fate that has never befallen those widely perceived to be true Yahudah today - the Ashkenazi Jews of Europe, the land of Yisrael and the US. This nation of people referring to themselves as ‘Jews’ could not possibly be the physical descendants of the ancient Yahudim; simply because they fail to meet the criteria set by the Hebrew prophets concerning their racial and ethnic origins.

But also, the wretched conditions that would come upon and overtake Yisrael in the last days. Notwithstanding the horrific suffering they endured at the hands of the Nazis, the Ashkenazi Jews have in no wise been subjected to the divine chastisement of absolute disenfranchisement and dehumanization - including the very loss of national identity - as foretold by the prophets. Therefore, it becomes necessary to discover the true national identity of the modern-day

Ashkenazi Jews, to fully establish the identity and purpose of the true physical seed of Yisrael.

Since these European Jews are clearly not the actual descendants of the ancient Kingdom of Yahudah, then who are they? And why until just recently, has the whole world assumed them to be true Yisrael? Once again, we must turn to the book of beginnings - Genesis - for the surprising answer to this profound mystery. In the book of Genesis, we read concerning the sons of Noah, that the European nations descended not from Shem, the father of the Hebrews, but rather, from Yapheth. So, then the Ashkenazi Jews, many of whom so hastily brand anyone who would dare find fault with their people in any way as “anti-Semites” are in fact not a “Semitic” people themselves.

And although there are certainly many sincere seekers of YAHUWAH among their ranks, this key point is critical in understanding why as a whole, this nation of people have erroneously believed themselves to be the biological descendants of the ancient Kingdom of Yahudah and have been so widely perceived and accepted as such. Ironically, in the same passage of scripture used by “Talmudic Judaism” to conclude that so-called black people are the “cursed descendants of Ham”, lies a great mystery that unveils the real truth about Ashkenazi-based claims to the promises of Abraham.

Noah, beyond his alleged curse upon 'Ham' (it was actually Canaan), prophesies that YAHUWAH would “...enlarge Yapheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant” (Gen.10:27). In the King James version of the Torah, the word “enlarge” in this verse is rendered in the margin as “persuade” - which is closer to the actual meaning of the original Hebrew word Mosheh used. In the original Hebrew, the word translated enlarge is the word ‘Pathah,’ which means to entice, or to deceive.

What Noah was then prophesying was that the children of Yapheth would be enticed and persuaded by YAHUWAH to “...dwell in the tents of Shem.” In short, Caucasian proselytes (a tribe/nation called the Khazars) and other European descendants of Yapheth, would occupy the land of the Hebrew Yisraelites (descendants of Shem) while under a strong delusion.

DIVINE DESTINY

So then, Ashkenazi Jews are the descendants of Yapheth, who for purposes of establishing the soon coming Kingdom of Yahudah, were destined to both assume the identity and occupy the land of Yahudah under YAHUWAH's "persuasion" - fully believing themselves to be the physical seed of Abraham! Even so, Amen. This amazing fulfillment of the prophecy of Noah is among other things, YAHUWAH's divine chastisement upon the natural children of Yisrael for their rebellion in rejecting their birthright...

YAHUWAH, in His Divine providence, allowed the sacred inheritance to fall temporarily into the hands of a “foolish” nation; to prepare the land for the return of the true seed, and to provoke true Yisrael to jealousy - (note: righteous jealousy is not envy.) As it is written, “...for I, YAHUWAH your GOD am a jealous God...” - that we may turn to Him again in righteousness; and that the promise to Abraham of his seed inheriting the land forever may be gloriously fulfilled! Indeed, "YAHUWAH has not cast away His people whom He foreknew" (Rom. 11:2).

Hear, O “black America,” and hearken you inhabitants of the earth: It is written, “From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering” (Zeph. 3:10). And surely, "...it shall come to pass in the place where it was said unto them, you are not My people; there it shall be said unto them, you are the sons of the living GOD" (Hosea 1:10). For the true identity of the children of the Tran-Atlantic slave trade, from beyond the rivers of Ethiopia - Africa and the Western Hemisphere - is the Biblical Hebrew Yisraelites of the Kingdom of Yahudah.

In Spirit and in truth, the ultimate destiny of the physical Kingdom of Yahudah is to serve the body of Christ at large as Royal High Priests after the order of Melchizedek; to the end that the entire Commonwealth of Yisrael may be confirmed in the Royal Priesthood - the faithful remnant of Hebrew Yisraelites in Christ, and the adopted sons of the covenants from every kindred, tribe, tongue, nation and people; to establish an authentic unity of the faith; in preparation for the triumphant revelation of our Royal High Priest, to rule the Nations in everlasting righteousness, joy and peace!

May the Grace, Mercy and Divine Completeness of Abba YAH be with us all. Ahmein.
