TO FLEE OR NOT TO FLEE

That is the question. The answer? Hear me, you Hebrews -- as an ancient, set-apart nation moving in unity, our fathers did not flee from their captivities!

This is an indisputable fact of Hebrew Yisraelite history. And even though there are individuals and groups among us who will build community 'westward in Eden' - including KYCN - the divine destiny of our people does in fact also include a collective awakening, and a new Exodus (see Yechezqel/Ezekiel, chapters 35-38.)

My beloved mishpacha, our fathers didn't flee out of ancient Egypt! Mosheh overcame Pharaoh, through the infinite power of YAH. We left in His power -- in glorious victory, a nation-wide structure, six hundred fifty thousand strong, not including women and children, and great spoils from our captors. (Neither did we flee ancient Babylon. Selah.)

In Egypt, we as a mighty organized nation knew who we were. We had the divine favor of our Elohim, with great signs and miracles following. We moved into the wilderness of Egypt -- still in the land where we were held captive. That's what Mosheh was commanded to do by Yahuah.

The only time our fathers ever fled a captivity as a nation was during the Roman sieges on Yerushalayim in the first century, according to the prophetic admonition of Yahushua Ha Mashiakh (the Risen Head of the eternal priest/king order of Melchizedek.)

Now Hebrews, we as a mighty nation will overcome this "Egyptian" captivity in like manner, just as it is written.

Shal'm Aleichem!
